Communications : Next meeting date is February 9, 2009.

Thank you from Emmaus Center to Cowboys for donation.

Waterford Worlds Fair looking for donation for Locked Moose Antler Project.

We received a letter (advertisement) from Beikirch's Ammunition.

There has been a request for a donation from Greenland Point Center to sponsor children's camp.

There has been a request to buy advertising for NorthWoods Sporting Journal – if 5 members subscribe our ad would be free.

Committees:

Building and Grounds: Insulation project is almost ready for Mainley Vinyl to install the insulation. Back door was weather-stripped

Capital Planning (Ken Pratt):

The Committee met last Monday. Cowboys were asked to supply additional information on their request.

Landscaping for field was discussed.

Roof for trap stations is in planning stage.

Two other projects are proceeding: Insulation for indoor range and shooting bench enclosures.

No news from NRA on money for restroom.

Competitions (Darin Gray):

First shoot was held last week with a full line of shooters. Four center-fire shooters will shoot on their own.

Trap (Bill Raynes):

Trap shooting is on an every-other-weekend schedule which is posted on the calendar in the clubhouse.

Cowboy Action Shooting :

Dan Koch presented request for money for capital improvements and is working to provide additional information.

Cowboy Fast-Draw (Dan Koch)

Sunday, January 18 is the next shoot – all are welcome.

Gong Shoot and Mini Gong Shoot (Jerry Bishop) :

No report.

Newsletter:

We need a new chairperson for the newsletter.

Web Site (Rick Bansley):

Rick is working in Millinocket and will still post info to the web, but is unable to attend meetings.

4H (Norwood Ames):

The first postal league shoot was held on Saturday, January 10 because they were snowed out on Wednesday. There are 10-12 shooters in the league.

Fall Shoot (Grace Clement):

No report

Political Action (Rick Bansley):

No report

E-mail Activities (Dan Koch):

Need updated member list.

Club minutes will be sent to Dan for distribution in place of Newsletter.

Unfinished Business :

Discussed above

New Business :

Nine members have signed up for NorthWoods Sporting Journal @ $15 each. This will give the club a free subscription and a free ad.

Larry Sherwood requested everyone bring wood for our stove to help save costs for oil.

Women's Handgun Safety Course is in the planning stage. $50 cost for materials etc. Must be 18 or older. Maximum class size is 12 students. Jim Smith will be the instructor.

Remarks for the good of the club:

The club has gotten stronger because of the members' efforts. Thanks to all.
